San Carlos Treasure Hunters is intended to be a fun event which enables youths, ages 10-15 to compete in a city-wide treasure hunt. The clues for the hunt are based entirely on the history of San Carlos, San Carlos Parks and the Legend of the The Secret Treasure of Zoe A. Powers. The hunt will start at Casa de Flores in downtown San Carlos on Walnut Street. Upon receiving their first clues, teams will begin a frenzied hunt around the city of San Carlos, visiting 10 pre-determined locations. Teams have the option of having the Supervising Parent drive them to and from each location, or having the Supervising Parent accompany them on foot to each station. Teams may decide to drive to some locations, and walk to others. All stations will be within the San Carlos city limits. The first team to complete the hunt and locate the treasure chest will be declared the winner and will get to keep all prizes found in the treasure chest.
